Communal Functions of Social Comparison

Zlatan Križan

Iowa State University

Frederick X. Gibbons

University of Connecticut

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS
Table of Contents

Contributors

Acknowledgments

List of Tables

Introduction: Communion in social comparison: Back to the roots

Zlatan Križan & Frederick X. Gibbons

Part I. Core Considerations

1. Agency and communion in social comparison

   Kenneth D. Locke

2. Social comparison in identity theory

   Jan E. Stets & Peter E. Burke

3. When comparisons divide: Invidious emotions and their social control

   Zlatan Križan & Richard H. Smith

Part II. Individual Level

4. Sparing others through social comparison

   Anne E. Zell & Julie Juola Exline

5. Social comparisons within romantic relationships

   Penelope Lockwood & Rebecca T. Pinkus
Part III. Group Level

6. Prototype-based comparisons within groups: Constructing social identity to reduce uncertainty

   Michael A. Hogg & Amber A. Gaffney

7. Bonding, hiding, and promoting: Three reactions to shared threat

   Hart Blanton, Melissa Burkley, & Edward Burkley

Part IV. Sociocultural Level

8. Basic principles of social comparison: Does gender matter?

   Serge Guimond & Armand Chatard

9. Culture and self-worth: Implications for social comparison processes and coping with threats to self-worth

   Joni Y. Sasaki, Deborah Ko, & Heejung S. Kim

Author Index

Subject Index